MEDIA ADVISORY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

What: Mount Carmel College of Nursing at Fairfield Medical Center Program Open House

When: Tuesday, January 27, 2009 at 6 p.m.

Where: Fairfield Medical Center in Lancaster, Ohio

Background: Mount Carmel College of Nursing at Fairfield Medical (MCCN FMC) will host an informational open house for prospective students and their families at Fairfield Medical Center in Lancaster, Ohio. The new MCCN FMC partnership, established in fall 2008, is a four-year baccalaureate program designed to prepare students for exciting careers in nursing. Based on the campus of Fairfield Medical Center, the program affords students in Lancaster, Ohio and surrounding areas the opportunity to obtain a Mount Carmel nursing education close to home. Nearly two-dozen students are currently enrolled in the inaugural MCCN FMC program and began taking their general education courses at Ohio University-Lancaster this fall. For more information or to RSVP, those interested may call 1-800-225-0581 or 614-234-LIFE. Additional information is available on the website www.mccn.edu.
