What: Open House for Mount Carmel College of Nursing at Fairfield Medical Center Program

When: Wednesday, November 12, 2008 at 6 p.m.

Where: Ohio University-Lancaster Campus, Room 302

Background

Mount Carmel College of Nursing at Fairfield Medical Center (MCCN, FMC) will host an informational open house for prospective students and their families on the campus of Ohio University-Lancaster. The new MCCN/FMC partnership, established in fall of 2008, is a four-year baccalaureate program designed to prepare students for exciting careers in nursing. Based on the campus at Fairfield Medical Center, the program affords students in Lancaster, Ohio and surrounding areas the opportunity to obtain a Mount Carmel nursing education close to home. Nearly two-dozen students are currently enrolled in the MCCN/FMC program and began taking their general education courses at Ohio University-Lancaster this fall. For more information or to RSVP, call 1-800-225-0581 or 614-234-LIFE. Additional information is also available on the website www.mccn.edu.
