GENERAL SHERMAN JUNIOR HIGH STUDENT COUNCIL PRESENTS $261 CHECK TO FMC FOUNDATION FOR CANCER PATIENTS

LANCASTER, Ohio (November 19, 2008) – On November 13, 2008, the General Sherman Junior High School Student Council presented Ricki Chenault, Fairfield Medical Center Foundation Executive Director, a check for $261 to support cancer patients at Fairfield Medical Center.

Over a two-week interval, students were encouraged to participate by voting for a teacher they would like to see in a pie-throwing contest. Various faculty members were involved to make this project a success. Cassidy Helman, Seventh Grade Math Teacher, commented, “We wanted to do something to really involve all our students, raise money for cancer patients, as well as have something fun and exciting for the students to look forward to.”

Ricki Chenault, Executive Director of the Fairfield Medical Center Foundation was presented the check from Sara Kobella, Seventh Grade Science Teacher, Cassidy Helman, Seventh Grade Math Teacher, Student Council members, Julie Donahue, eighth grade, and Meredith Helman, seventh grade. The money raised will be used to purchase wigs for patients suffering from cancer to better cope with their illness. Chenault was very honored to accept the check on behalf of the Fairfield Medical Center Foundation, “The students should be very proud of themselves for this tremendous effort to raise money for such a great cause.”
