AMERICAN RED CROSS HOLDING EMERGENCY BLOOD DRIVE TODAY AT FMC

LANCASTER, Ohio (September 16, 2008) – Due to the power outages, there have been numerous blood drives that have been cancelled. With supplies already at critical levels, all blood drives are essential. So, today (Tuesday, September 16th) the American Red Cross will be at Fairfield Medical Center to hold an emergency blood drive. The American Red Cross is asking for any and all eligible donors to step-up and help.

Time: 11:30 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Location: FMC Assembly Room 5

An appointment is not necessary.

Please join us and make a difference!

Remember there must be 56 days between donations.
