FMC CELEBRATED NURSES DAY WITH LUNCHEON

LANCASTER, Ohio (May 14, 2009) – On May 6th, Fairfield Medical Center celebrated nursing with nearly 300 nurses in attendance. The nurses enjoyed a luncheon, prizes, and a guest speaker at several different times during the day. The guest speaker, Linda Schmid, PhD, presented information on this year's theme, which was "The Journey of Nursing." The Center also celebrated its nurses on night shift with a luncheon and prizes.

Nurses from various departments within the hospital also created posters to show their commitment to the field of Nursing. The posters were then displayed after the celebration for the public and other hospital personnel to view. Jodie Hildenbrand, RN/Cardiac Educator at FMC, noted, "The nurses appreciated the efforts to celebrate their field and expertise. I was glad to be a part of this celebration, and couldn't ask for a better team to work with."
