LANCASTER, Ohio (July 31, 2008) – Fairfield Medical Center in conjunction with the American Cancer Society are pleased to announce the opening of a Cancer Resource Center (CRC) that will be located in the Fairfield Center for Health & Healing at 1199 River Valley Boulevard (Lower Level) in Lancaster. The ribbon cutting is scheduled on August 7, 2008 from 4:00 pm – 5:00 pm at the Center for Health and Healing, held by the Lancaster Chamber of Commerce. Tours of the Cancer Resource Center will be offered that day, and for more information please call Amy Sampson at (740) 687-8071.

The CRC will be open on Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 12:00 pm – 4:00 pm and Thursdays from 12:00 pm – 6:00 pm. As the need grows we plan to expand the hours of operation.

The purpose of the CRC is to offer resources to the community, specifically patients having been diagnosed with cancer, loved ones of those diagnosed, or anyone seeking information on cancer.

“Fairfield Medical Center is pleased to be able to work with the American Cancer Society to offer this wonderful resource to our community,” said Amy Sampson, Fairfield Medical Center Physician Liaison. The Resource Center offers a computer that is linked to several cancer-related websites, along with books and videos that can be checked out.

In addition to the CRC, the Fairfield Center for Health & Healing also offers wig fittings and a wig bank on-site. For more information, please contact the Fairfield Center for Health & Healing at (740) 687-1337.
